U.S. COAST GUARD LEASES FORMER WAL-MART

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. — Los Angeles-based BH Properties has leased a 102,000-square-foot retail property to the U.S. Coast Guard. The building, a former Wal-Mart, is located in the Port Elizabeth Shopping Center in Elizabeth City. The Coast Guard will use the space to store aircraft parts. John Wessling and Bill Overman of GVA Advantis' Norfolk, Va., office represented the landlord.
